

Top Secret

Edit: Mex

File No. 08

Date: 30/04/2023

Customs, traditions in the USA, GB, the CR

USA:

- Thanksgiving: A holiday celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November to give thanks for the blessings of the year and share a meal with family and friends.
- Independence Day: A national holiday on July 4th that celebrates the signing of the Declaration of Independence and the birth of the United States of America.
- Super Bowl Sunday: A major event in American culture, where millions of people watch the championship game of the National Football League (NFL) and enjoy food, drinks, and socializing with friends and family.
- Halloween: A holiday celebrated on October 31st, where people dress up in costumes, go trick-or-treating, and decorate their homes with spooky decorations.
- Christmas: A major holiday celebrated on December 25th, where people exchange gifts, decorate trees, and gather with family and friends.

GB:

- Royal Family: The British Royal Family is a symbol of national identity and pride in Great Britain, with many customs and traditions surrounding their roles and events, such as the Changing of the Guard at Buckingham Palace.
- Afternoon Tea: A traditional British custom where people gather to enjoy tea, scones, sandwiches, and pastries.

- Bonfire Night: A holiday celebrated on November 5th, also known as Guy Fawkes Night, where people light bonfires and fireworks to commemorate the failed Gunpowder Plot of 1605.
- Boxing Day: A holiday celebrated on December 26th, where people exchange gifts and enjoy a day off work to recover from Christmas celebrations.
- Pantomime: A type of musical comedy that is popular during the holiday season, featuring slapstick humor, audience participation, and familiar fairy tale or folklore characters.

CR:

- Easter Traditions: Many Czechs celebrate Easter by painting eggs, baking Easter cakes, and visiting family and friends.
- St. Nicholas Day: On December 6th, St. Nicholas, accompanied by an angel and a devil, visits homes to reward well-behaved children with sweets and small gifts and reprimand naughty children with coal or potatoes.
- Christmas Traditions: Christmas is a major holiday in the CR, celebrated with a traditional Christmas Eve dinner, featuring carp soup and fried carp, and the lighting of candles on the Christmas tree.
- May Day: On May 1st, Czechs celebrate the arrival of spring with bonfires, music, and dancing.
- Czech Beer Culture: The Czech Republic has a strong beer culture, with many traditional breweries, beer festivals, and a long history of beer brewing.